

As a resident of Indiana I oppose the petition filed.

The law as it stands works how I want it to and I do not want it weakened to support the interests of corporations.